

WHICH
Vampire Falls
CHARACTER

ARE YOU?

Someone takes your last Haribo. How do you react?

- A. Run them through with your favourite sword.
- B. Check they're okay. Someone doing such a heinous thing is obviously processing some stuff.
- C. Suck their blood and get the fizzy cola taste that way. Win win.

You get stuck in a chair. What do you do?

- A. This would never happen; sitting is for tenderfoots. You are always standing, ready for battle.
- B. Literally, die of embarrassment. Also, post the video to your Stories.

- C. Nothing. You once shared a kissing chair with a couple of newly sired vampires. It was a good time.

What's your perfect date?

- A. Strategizing.
- B. Clueless showing at the drive-in, snacks colour co-ordinated with Cher and Dionne's outfits.
- C. Bacchanalian feast. They don't make orgies like they used to.

Your love interest chooses your nemesis over you.

What do you do?

- A. Which arch nemesis? You have many.
- B. Inject chocolate and ice cream into your veins until you feel nothing. But also follow potential rebounds on Insta.
- C. This happened to you in the summer of 1903 at Prince Lavka's birthday party. It did not end well for your nemesis. Or your love interest.

What would you wear to the Vampire Ball?

- A. Your fanciest outfit is your battle armour.
- B. Navy and pink plaid cross-buttoned suit. Matching manicure.
Oh, and a crown.
- C. What you always wear: nothing but a glint in your eye and the faint aroma of seduction.

Nurturing, extroverted, and the heart of your friendship group. You know when your friends need the perfect quip or a shoulder to cry on.

Mostly Cs – Viggo Rasmussen

Cunning and Machiavellian, you believe life (or death) is for living and enter every situation with the cavalier attitude of someone who has nothing to lose...or has already lost everything.
